

The illustration features a large, red-skinned figure with a beard and a stern expression, wearing a red suit and a vest made of several cylindrical bomb components. He is looking upwards and to the right. In the bottom left corner, a group of five children in school uniforms are looking up at him with expressions of concern and curiosity. The background is a teal color with a black, ink-like splatter at the top. In the top left, there are small drawings of a jet and several beetles. The title is written in a large, white, hand-drawn font across the center, and the author's name is in a similar font above it. The publisher's name is in the bottom right corner.
