

Tra la la!

The background of the cover is a whimsical illustration. A young boy with dark hair and large, wide eyes is peeking out from behind a large, dark green bush. He has a slightly mischievous or nervous expression. The setting is a forest with several tall, slender trees that have light-colored, vertically striped bark. The foliage is represented by simple, dark green, cloud-like shapes. The ground is a mix of green and yellow, with small orange flowers and patches of grass. The overall style is soft and painterly, with a focus on naturalistic colors.

The illustration depicts a rural landscape. In the upper left, a large tree with a thick brown trunk and green foliage extends its branches across the top. Below it, a teal rectangular box contains the text. To the left of the box, a small hut with a brown, rounded roof and a red door is partially visible. A path of brown earth leads from the bottom left towards the center. On the right side of the path, there are two more trees with green foliage. The background is a light cream color.
