Robots of the Future

Author and illustrator: Artur Gulewicz

In the near future there are plenty of robots that help people with their everyday activities – they walk dogs, make breakfast, do the washing, clean the flat, play musical instruments, prune gardens, teach basketball and fix cars. One day, as a result of a lightning strike, all the robot parts get scattered around a factory. Can you put the matching parts together? There's Dogomat, Dustshoer, Sprinkleplant, and other machines...

Thanks to each illustration being divided into three parts, you can make your own versions of robots of the future and have lots of fun as you do it!

What are they doing?

Author and illustrator: Artur Gulewicz

A few characters have decided to leave their occupations and become someone else for a while. A postman, gardener, builder, musician, scientist, journalist, ballet dancer, waiter and traveller, all dressed in clothing typical for their profession and surrounded by objects normally linked with their work, will change their habits across the pages of this book. What happens when the postman takes a guitar in his hands and juggles with a pineapple at the same time? Or when the traveller starts twirling like the ballerina? Anything is possible thanks to the illustrations divided into three parts. They guarantee hours of fun and you'll certainly feel fully entertained!

Paddy Learns to Speak

Author: Marta Galewska-Kustra

Illustrator: Joanna Kłós

Meet Paddy and his jolly family! This friendly toddler will become your child's favourite companion as they take their first steps in learning to speak. The first instalment of Paddy's adventures is especially for the very young, and also for slightly older children who have taken their time to learn to speak. It focuses predominantly on onomatopoeia and vowels that are used by children as young as one. The book's deliberately simple format and beautiful illustrations naturally support your child's speech development.

Paddy's Holidays

Author: Marta Galewska-Kustra

Illustrator: Joanna Kłós

The fourth instalment in the Paddy books is for children aged three to six. It's time to have some fun with voicing and with the correct way to pronounce phonemes. The book supports your child's pronunciation and allows you to check if your little one is able to make sounds correctly or whether she needs the professional help of a speech therapist.

Paddy's First Words

Author: Marta Galewska-Kustra

Illustrator: Joanna Kłós

The second book about Paddy's adventures focuses on the first words typical in child speech development. One- and two-year-old children learn to understand and use these words. A two-year-old starts to join words together, which means they can already create simple sentences. For older children, this book will be ideal for making their first steps in reading.

Paddy. Having Fun with Gestures and Sounds

Author: Marta Galewska-Kustra

Illustrator: Joanna Kłós

Paddy introduces children to the world of speech! Across the pages of this little book, you will find your favourite character doing activities that will put a smile on every child's face. All this is combined with sounds that are important for early speech development: vowels, simple syllables and onomatopoeia. You will find plenty more examples of onomatopoeia (which are an important part of speech development) in our book called Paddy Learns to Speak.

Paddy's Speaking Exercises

Author: Marta Galewska-Kustra

Illustrator: Joanna Kłós

The third volume of Paddy's adventures focuses on enriching your child's vocabulary, developing her ability to form sentences (as the sentences are becoming more complex) and teaching basic grammar rules (e.g. inflecting verbs). Through play, the book will support your child as they develop all these language skills. The book's deliberately simple form and beautiful illustrations naturally support your child's speech development.

What's Paddy Doing?

Author: Marta Galewska-Kustra

Illustrator: Joanna Kłós

Across the pages of this little book, you will find your favourite character in everyday situations. Each one of them is a chance to familiarise yourselves with the most basic nouns and verbs. Use the book according to your child's needs and her development stage. You can have the child in your lap, or you can put her on her belly and place the book in front of her, or even look at the book when you're both lying on the floor. It's important that you point to objects in the illustrations, repeat the words used (do so in everyday life as well), speak clearly and add emotion to what you say.

Hérons, Hens and Gannets

Author and illustrator: Asia Gwis

Birds live everywhere: in cities, in the jungle, on the water, in the country and in the forests... They do not fear the cold of the Antarctic nor the scorching heat of the tropics. They are all very different: there's the tiny bee hummingbird and the huge common ostrich. There are adorable birds like the long-tailed tits and clever birds like ravens. There are the colourful parrots and the grey sparrows. They fly, they run, they build their homes and lay their eggs. Most of them are sociable, but there are some loners out there too. There are over 10 thousand bird species in the world.

A Year in the Countryside

Author and illustrator: Magdalena Kozieł-Nowak

Here the seasons set the rhythm of life. In the winter Henry organises sleigh rides for visitors from the city. In spring the fields must be ploughed and sown. The summer brings hard work with the harvest and then haymaking. After the harvest, the owner of an eco shop comes. She collects sweet honey, pumpkins and carrots. In autumn, digging up potatoes is more fun when the family bake them on a bonfire.

A Year in the Countryside contains twelve double-page spreads that describe life on a farm. We find out what responsibilities children have, what things adults have to do, and what it means to work in the fields and with animals.

The Egg

Author: Eliza Piotrowska

Illustrator: Asia Gwis

Ancient Romans believed everything begins „ab ovo”, which means “from an egg”. The Earth was created from a large egg, and the Sky from its shell. Life on Earth also begins with eggs, except they're a bit smaller. All Roman feasts began with eggs and today eggs are the highlight of Easter festivities... It's worth taking a closer look at eggs: compare the eggs of birds, reptiles (including prehistoric reptiles!), amphibians, fish, insects and even mammals; find out how eggs are used in cooking, the sciences, architecture and design; see egg-inspired works of art and also meet people who'd rather stay as far away from eggs as possible...

The Land of Robots

Author and illustrator: Tomasz Kowal

Robik lives in the Land of Robots. Here, the residents are machines made of metal and plastic, but they also have emotions and minds of their own. They're actually quite similar to humans: they build cities, start families and eat out in restaurants, except rather than having steak and chips, they order cogs and screws. And, just like the human world, the robot world is a bit messy... Join Robik on a trek across this amazing city. Visit Chock-a-Block Street, see a car exhibition, the shopping district and the port. Don't forget to pay a visit to the space travel centre and the lemonade factory! At the end of this busy trip, have a rest in the Robo-SPA. As you walk across the city, pass through a labyrinth and help some robots out by solving riddles and looking for details hidden in the illustrations!

Numbers and Colours

Author and illustrator: Aleksandra Artymowska

This book can be read from both ends. One end tells us about the adventures of Gustav the Rabbit, the other takes us on a journey with Leonora the Sheep. Both stories lead us to the inside of the book, where the two heroes meet. The two plucky characters bravely trudge through thick grass and stormy seas with a single focus in mind: for the youngest readers to familiarise themselves with colours and the numbers from 1 to 10. Funny rhymes, happy adventures and plenty of details make exploring this book a fantastically fun way to learn.

Puppy Maths

Author and illustrator: Ewa Kozyra-Pawlak

An educational and heart-warming story for the very young. Ewa Kozyra-Pawlak's catchy verses and lovely embroidered illustrations introduce toddlers to counting, improve their perceptiveness and make them more sensitive.

Ten homeless puppies read an ad: "I'll adopt a dog, or maybe a couple...". Each puppy wants to have a home of their own, so they hurry to the address from the ad. But at the end all of them get adopted by a very lonely gentleman! From then on their new owner can count the dogs each night, instead of counting sheep.

Baby Racoons

Author and illustrator: Ewa Kozyra-Pawlak

Mr and Mrs Racoon like things to be squeaky clean. They clean and wash everything non-stop, but they also have something to worry about: their children get awfully dirty. Whatever the parents wash, the baby racoons stain with mud or something greasy. They also make a terrible mess. Is there anything that could make the two worlds come together? Something that would make the children clean (at least from time to time) and the parents let their hair down a bit?

Baby Racoons is a lovely, embroidered family story about white and colour washes and about how everything has its proper time and space.

Hey, Jimmy!

Author: Rafał Skarżycki

Illustrator: Tomasz Lew Leśniak

Hey, Jimmy! Girl Trouble?

Hey, Jimmy! is a new, funny adventure series for primary school kids. Every volume is a complete, compelling story full of jokes, surprises and thrilling events, all composed with the best cinematic plotting. The books perfectly combine traditional prose narrative with the style of a dynamic comic book – the drawings are not just illustrations, they are part of the narrative.

Hey, Jimmy! has been a great success on the Polish publishing market, and not only in economic terms – the series has received a huge number of enthusiastic reviews (both from professionals and from readers, or readers' parents). The first volume was voted Best Book for Spring 2015, and the second was shortlisted by Granice.pl for Best Book for Winter 2015. According to The Book Institute of Poland, the premiere of the series was one of the most important events on the Polish children's book market in 2015.
